Let's Go Fishing!

PS SHARON FONG, OUTREACH MINISTRY

A few weeks ago, my family and I had the opportunity to attend an Admiralty Zone 3 Residents Committee (RC) dinner with Mr. Vikram Nair (MP of Admiralty) as the Guest of Honour. The RC thanked Covenanters for their faithful service to the community kids at HDB void decks through storytelling. As my sons saw pictures of Covenanters conducting storytelling, I asked them, "Should the Church just be within the walls of the church building or should we also go beyond?" They pondered for a while and answered, "The Church should be beyond our walls and should be a blessing to others." Indeed, Christ has not called us to stay within the church building; we have been commissioned to be "fishers of men".

This month of April, we want to celebrate how Covenanters are acting in obedience as they intentionally reach out to others. On Good Friday, approximately 400 newcomers came to our evangelistic services (adult, Sunbeam and Momentum), 35 persons rededicated their lives to Jesus and about 50 prayed to receive Christ. In the Domestic Helpers' Appreciation Tea, 19 persons prayed to receive Christ. I also witnessed many employers setting aside their precious time to bring their helpers to this event. All glory to God! We rejoice too that Covenanters are walking in obedience by inviting their friends to hear the Gospel this month of April.

Recently, one couple in our church has encouraged me. One day, they hopped into a Grab hitch by divine appointment. Prompted by the Spirit, they decided to invite the Grab driver to attend our church's Good Friday service. Amazingly, he came and was blessed by the service. This testimony gives us a glimpse of how a church should go beyond the church building to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the community.

Indeed, we are blessed to be a blessing. Let's go out of the church building and be fishers of men. Let's go fishing together!

LAST WEEK'S SERMON SUMMARY

Life in the Meanwhile

SCRIPTURE: EZRA 4:24-5:2 ■ SERMON: REV TONY YEO

Introduction

When you are experiencing “life in the meanwhile” – things are bleak and at a standstill, you feel stuck, you are at a loss about what to do, you may even feel that God is missing in your life.

Historical context of Ezra 4:

Ezra 4:1-5 covers the Reign of Cyrus (550-530 BC), Reign of Cambyses (530 – 522 BC), Reign of Darius (522-486 BC). Ezra 4:24 is during the Reign of Darius (second year). Therefore Ezra 4:24 should be a continuation from Ezra 4:1-5.

A. What Stops Us (v.24)

“Then the work on the house of God that is in Jerusalem stopped, and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.” (v.24)

1. Discouragement led the people to abandon the work on the temple.
2. Fear cripples us, robs us of the power of God at work in us, paralyses us and eventually stops us.
3. The disciples were completely discouraged and fearful when they saw Jesus arrested and crucified. Their world collapsed, they lost hope and their dreams died. But Jesus' death became the pivotal point of history — He conquered sin and death, and fulfilled His mission on earth.
4. Application: Don't let God's dream die!
5. Focus: Let your heart take courage, be strong and wait on the Lord (Psa 27:14).

B. What Revives Us (vv.1-2)

“Now the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.” (v.1)

1. There were fifteen years of silence between Ezra 4:24 and Ezra 5:1-2.

Why so long? God is waiting for someone who is willing to trust in Him again.

How does God's Word revive us?

2. God's Word Convicts Us (Ezr 5:1). Convicts (Gk. elencho) means to convince someone of the truth, to reprove, accuse, refute, stir, awaken, ignite a fire.
3. God's Word through Haggai (Hag 1:2,4,9). Haggai reprimanded the people for using opposition as an excuse to neglect God's house. They concerned themselves with their own physical needs while God's work was set aside.
4. God's Word through Zechariah (Zech 1:3). It is never too late to return to God – “Return to me.” God is still waiting for you – “and I will return to you.”
5. God's Word Cradles Us (Ezr 5:2) – “were with them, supporting them”
“The stars may fall but God's promises will stand and be fulfilled.” – J. I. Packer

Conclusion

Revival does not end at Easter. The Lord grants personal revival for you and those whom you are standing in the gap for.
