PraySingapore: Seeking the Welfare of the City

REV TAN KAY KIONG AND REV TONY YEO, SENIOR PASTORS

United Faith and Humility pleases God!

This is what's going to happen today from 4pm to 7pm at the National Stadium. In good faith, we are expecting a packed stadium, just like the Jubilee Day of Prayer in 2015; trusting God that all those who took the tickets will steward this God-ordained moment well and show up in full force — to wholeheartedly honour One Name, unite as One Family, humble ourselves as One People, and pray with One Hope.

Let's have a United Faith that cries out to God to make Singapore an Antioch of Asia, and Humility that first repents of our sins before God and asks Him to heal our land.

Certainly, we must not just pray during this Sunday, but every day and week till the Celebration of Hope on 17 to 19 May 2019. Pray that 2019, the Year of Proclamation, will bring forth an unprecedented harvest of fruits and righteousness.

We are very grateful that Covenant EFC could secure 3,120 tickets for our participation. We know some of you would like to go but there are no more tickets. Please do not be dismayed. Join us in spirit and use that time to pray with others as well. Or if you are bold enough, you may go to the stadium where there may be some tickets that are given back at the last minute. You can use those returned tickets to enter the stadium.

PraySingapore Sunday, 7 October The National Stadium 4pm to 7pm

Why PraySingapore?

- Because it is a significant moment in 2018 Year of Prayer
- Because it is a spiritual act in humble obedience to God
- Because it is a sacred trust to take part in shaping the future of our nation
- Because it is a strategic milestone towards a revival-harvest

Theme:

Seek the Welfare of the City

Overview:

Church | One Heart One Voice

A call to love Singapore: Pray for her. Seek God wholeheartedly. For when we do so, God has promised to reveal Himself to our people and our nation. (Jeremiah 29:7, 13-14)

Family | One Foundation One Future

A call to love Singapore: Sink roots. Be fruitful and multiply (Jer 29:5-6). In this family segment, there will be an opportunity for couples to renew their marriage vows. The organisers are inviting participation through local churches.

Nation: One People One Destiny

A call to love Singapore: Dream the Father's dream for Singapore (Jer 29:11).

Harvest | One Name One Hope

A call to love Singapore: Seek her shalom through Good News and good works (Jer 29:7).

United Faith and Humility pleases God!

Sermon Outline

Seeking the Welfare of the City

SCRIPTURE: ACTS 17:1-34 • SERMON: REV TONY YEO

Introduction

If given one request, what would you seek for the welfare of our city, Singapore?

We seek the welfare of our city by:

A. Being a Messenger of the Word (vv.1-15)

B. Bringing a Message to the World (vv.16-34)

Conclusion

NEXT WEEK'S SERMON SPEAKER:
14 OCT - REV EDMUND CHAN (BPJ, WDL AND EAST)

Last Week's Sermon Summary

More Surprise

SCRIPTURE: ACTS 16:11-40 • SERMON: REV TAN KAY KIONG

Introduction

Paul's faithfulness to the Macedonian vision turned out to be the beachhead for the preaching of the Gospel to Europe and Western civilisation. Today's passage in Acts 16:11-40 takes us to the beginning of Paul's second missionary journey. From Troas, Paul set sail to the city of Philippi and there we will see more surprises from our missionary God.

A. Unlikely Converts in Unlikely Places (vv.11-18)

1. In verse 13, we are told that on the Sabbath, Paul went outside the city gate to the river, where they expected to find a place of prayer. They didn't find a man as seen in the vision. But they found a group of women gathered for prayer. Paul seized the opportunity!
2. Conversion of Lydia: Probably a wealthy business woman. Scripture clearly said that it was God who opened her heart to pay attention! Paul was just the faithful mouthpiece.
3. Conversion of the Slave Girl: Paul casted out the evil spirit that possessed her. She kept screaming at the top of her lungs, "These men are servants of the most high God who are telling you the way to be saved!" Why was he annoyed?
 - a. Word "annoyed" could also be translated as "troubled or grieved." Paul was deeply grieved and troubled at the plight of this slave girl. If he was greatly annoyed, it would have been directed at the master who was making use of her or the unnecessary attention it's drawing that hinders his preaching.
 - b. The phrase "most high God" was used by the Jews to refer to Jehovah God. The Greeks also used it to refer to their Greek gods. So, Paul cast out the demon eventually to demonstrate a clear distinction between the mythological Greek god and the true God of the Heavens and the Earth – that Jesus is distinctively the only most high God!
4. Lydia and the slave girl were seeming unlikely converts that was found in an unlikely place. God reached out to them through Paul's obedience and willingness!
5. Application: We think the rich don't want to be saved and the oppressed can't be saved.

B. Unbelievable Witness in Unbelievable Circumstances (vv.19-40)

1. Conversion of the Philippian jailer: Paul and Silas were thrown into prison after they were wrongly accused of causing civil chaos and unrest. The jailer, usually a retired army soldier, was commanded to guard them carefully. Thus, they were kept in the inner prison cell and their feet were fastened in the stocks. Then the guards slept. With lacerated backs and aching limbs, they were suffering from great pain and severe shock. But verse 25 tells us they were not groaning, but were singing. They were not cursing men; they were blessing God. No wonder the other prisoners were listening to them. They had a credible message and they were incredible messengers! What happened? Well, God showed up!
2. The jailer awoke and wanted to kill himself as he thought the prisoners had escaped. Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself. We are all here!" That moment was a moment of truth as the Jailer recognised his greatest need for Jesus through the incredible witness of Paul. His household believed in Jesus too.
3. Application: Let's be faithful in our witness. God is at work!

Conclusion

Keep sowing!
