Season 8 Overview

Cry Out

Hold Fast to God in our Healing & Discipleship

Returning to God's Heart and Commission

When cancer enters your life, it can feel like you've been sent into a foreign land of fear, fatigue, and uncertainty. In this difficult "exile," it's easy to feel that God is distant, that your prayers are unheard, and that you must face this alone.

"Cry Out" is an invitation to bring your whole, honest self before God - the fear, the fatigue, the questions, and the hope. This is not about having a "perfect" faith, but a dependent one. It's about learning to hold fast to the God who is fiercely holding on to you.

"Cry Out" is for anyone who is weary of fighting alone and longs to find a purpose that not only endures this journey but is refined by it. Come.

Find God in the valley.
